

Instructions for Nomination Papers

General information

The nomination period is from April 15, 2022 to June 1, 2022 at 5pm. You can collect signatures at any time during that period but they must be filed by 5pm on June 1st in Madison.

Do not sign and date the Certification of Circulator section until you have either filled the sheet or have finished collecting signatures. The date in that section must be equal to or later than the dates in the Date of Signing column. Leave the Page No. section blank – it will be filled in when the papers are submitted.

You can make as many copies of the uncompleted sheets as you need. The original completed nomination papers must be submitted to the Wisconsin Election Committee (copies are not allowed and they cannot be faxed or emailed).

Returning nomination papers

Since the nomination papers need to be returned no later than June 1st at 5pm, they need to be returned to the candidate before that date. Contact the candidate using the contact information listed on the next page to ask how to get the nomination papers to them. It is also helpful for the candidates to keep them informed weekly on the total number of signatures you have collected.

Nomination papers signer criteria

Signers of the nomination papers must be eligible to vote in Wisconsin and must not have signed a nomination paper for another candidate for the office you are collecting for.

Wisconsin statewide and US Senate candidates

These are statewide offices so anyone who meets the criteria above can sign.

US House and Wisconsin State Assembly candidates

The candidates for these offices require signatures of eligible voters that live in the district the candidate is running in. This makes it more difficult due to the recent redistricting of US House and Wisconsin legislature districts. Some potential signers may not know which district they live in. If you collecting signatures for the candidates in a public place, it is a good idea to have a map of the district so potential signers can see if they are in the district. You can also use the online map located at <https://maps.legis.wisconsin.gov/>.

Guidelines for nomination paper signers (from Wisconsin Election Commission's "Candidate Ballot Procedures" document)

Qualified electors who support the candidacy of the person seeking office complete the signature lines of the nomination papers. Electors complete their portion of the nomination paper by providing their signature, printed name, residential address, municipality of residence, and the date on which they signed. An elector's address cannot be a P.O. Box. It must be their physical street address. Each elector is only allowed to sign nomination papers for one candidate per office. If an elector may vote for more than one candidate for the same office, they may sign nomination papers for as many candidates for the same office as the person is entitled to vote for at the election. EL 2.05(11). Nomination paper circulators should closely observe the signing process to ensure that each elector correctly provides all required information. Signature lines that are filled out incorrectly or are missing required information are often subject to challenge.
